Peterborough, N.H.,
August 12, 1920

Dear Miss Baker:

Thank you for the MS. which I am glad to have out of the way. We are all sorry to have you go, but perhaps it is better for your health and for your independence that you are not here just now, for chanterelles as large as dinner-bells are popping up all over the place.

Yours sincerely,

E. A. Robinson